

Emilio Sardini has been Head of Department of Information Engineering. The Department of Information Engineering has been evaluated as “Department of excellence 2018 2022” receiving a grant of 7 M€. He also has a good scientific international reputation in the field of sensors contributing to the promotion of interdisciplinary intersections with different disciplines such as life science and industry.